Evening of Good Housekeeping.

"An Evening of Good Housekeeping" is the attractive announcement of an entertainment to be given by the Home Mission Society of Park Place Church, at the parlors, No. 615 West Grace Street, next Friday evening, November 5th, at 8 o'clock. The ladies, excellent housekeepers themselves and descendants of those who shone resplendent in this art in the days which made Virginia's hospitality the theme of song and story, will display tempting products of their culinary labors, such as pickles, preserves, jellies, pies, cakes and candies. Woman's true sphere will be exemplified on every side, and her skill with the needle will be manifested in the beautiful articles of handwork shown. Charming maidens, daintily attired as housekeepers, will assist the older housekeepers, while the dining room will form a fitting background for another bevy of pretty young maidens.

A feature of the program will be the pages of Good Housekeeping Magazine reproduced by the children of the Park Place Brigade. Music and recitations will further add to the pleasure of the occasion.

Send Names to Miss Hammond.

Each member of the Art School and Art Club, of Richmond, has the privilege of sending one invitation to a nonmember to the opening reception of the art exhibition to be held at the school, No. 211 West Grace Street, Tuesday, November 17th.

All names and addresses should be sent to Miss Bessie Hammond, Brook Road, city.

Cabell—Lorraine.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Hoge Lorraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lorraine, of 2517 Grove Avenue, to Mr. Royal Cabark Cabell, will be celebrated Thursday, November 12th, at 6 o'clock P. M., in Second Presbyterian Church, this city. As the families of both Miss Lorraine and Mr. Cabell are in mourning, the number of invitations to the wedding has been limited, and it will take place very quietly.

Woman's Club.

The regular season at the Woman's Club will open to-morrow (Monday afternoon) with the annual book reception, when all members are requested to donate a book to the library. It has been suggested that ladies who intend to buy a book for presentation should consult the posted list of books to be discussed at the Literary Round Table before purchasing.

The library committee will be in attendance to receive the books donated.

On Wednesday afternoon, November 4th, at half-past 4, the Literary Round Table will hold its first meeting, when Charles Rann Kennedy's play, "The Servant in the House," will be discussed under the direction of Mrs. John L. Munce.

Miss Anne Stegar Winston will begin her "current events" class, in connection with Woman's Club, in the club audience room Saturday, November 7th, at 12 o'clock, at which time a permanent day and hour of meeting will be selected. All club members interested are invited to be present. Under Miss Stegar's direction, the pleasure and profit to be derived from such a class will incline all who can possibly do so to avail themselves of its opportunities.

Marriage Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marvin Story, of Franklin, Va., have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Mary Edwards, to Mr. R. Herman Cobb, on Thursday, October 29th, at the bride's home in Franklin.

Conservatory Recital.

All music lovers are invited to attend recital that will be given at the Conservatory of Music November 5th at 8:30 P. M. Mr. Heinrich Frieriks, recently returned to Richmond, will play several numbers of the program on the violin.

Meeting of Auxiliary.

The regular meeting of the Branch R. Allen Auxiliary of the Home for Incubables will be held in the annex of Murphy's Hotel on Thursday, November 5th, at 4 P. M.

As there is business of great importance to come before the meeting each member is particularly urged to be present.

St. John's Circle.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. William J. Parrish, of No. 262 East Broad Street. Business of importance will come up, and reports will be heard from delegates to the Petersburg convention.

The services at the "Virginia Home for Incubables" on Sunday, November 7th, will be conducted by the Rev. Ryland Knight, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, at 4 P. M.

Studio Recital.

At a piano recital given Tuesday evening, October 27th, in Miss Mabel Sims' studio, the following young ladies took part in the program: Florence Woods, Nannie West, Margaret James, Elizabeth Gaines, Emma Brown, Elizabeth West, Margaret Mehegan, Keith Saville, Ethel Whittet, Keith Whittet, Sarah Crump, Margaret Phillips, Elizabeth Phillips and Angie Sims.

Personal Mention.

Neck Ruching in Great Variety

Our Ruching Department is patronized by the most particular women. You find many styles of wider effects so stylish that they cannot be found elsewhere; and new kinds are coming in daily, at 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c up to $1.25 a yard.

Special Demonstration and Sale of Suits, Coats and Dresses from $15. to $35.

An important feature of this great outfitting store is the magnitude and scope of its business growing out of the ability to satisfactorily and intelligently supply everything in apparel that a woman may desire and at any price. We devote our undivided attention and entire forces to the outfitting of women and children, and in this sphere our capacity is unlimited, making ours the leading specialty house in Richmond. A woman who wants a suit or hat or coat at a medium price will find that just as much study and attention have been given to her needs as to the requirements of those who want garments costing ten times as much.

We are going to show you what superior garments we offer at small prices and the great number of styles carried. It stands to reason that where all the more expensive apparel is sold the medium priced garments will possess superior style characteristics.

Dresses from $15 to $35

These Attractive Dresses are made of serge, satins and broadcloths, and are suitable for either street, afternoon or evening wear, according to the material and color selected. There is a wide range of the latter, including the new light and dark shades, among them being taupe, rose, Catawba and black. Some models are in Empire style and others in panel front Princess design, as may be seen from illustration. Both plain and trimmed styles are shown.

Suits from $15 to $35

The very newest ideas are embodied in the Suits ranging between $15.00 to $35.00, such as the incroyable collar, large revers and the effective big pockets. Many stunning semi-fitted styles, button trimmed, are shown, as well as those in the strictly plain designs. The season's newest shades, such as Catawba, brown, green, smoke, taupe, navy, black, are to be found among them. The materials are the fashionable broadcloths, chevots, worsteds and fancy mixtures. All are satin or silk lined.

Coats from $15 to $35

Among this great collection of Coats are those in the Directoire period, trimmed with large revers, large pockets and buttons. Others are in the Empire style, and there are also numbers of semi-fitted, loose and close-fitting Coats in the strictly tailored models. Never before have we had such a variety of colors in Coats, these being shown in black, taupe, Catawba, navy blue, brown, tan, light gray, etc. The materials are broadcloth, kersey, imported wide wale diagonal, fancy mixtures, coverts, chevots, rainproof materials, and satin and velour.

We're after the greatest selling week we ever had in Women's Tailored Suits, and to make it worth while for the trade, we reduced for immediate clearance 25 Suits priced $25.00 to $30.00 to $15.00 and $17.50. All the newest effects. Must be seen to be appreciated.

Street Hats from $5 to $7.50

One of the most interesting features about our Medium Priced Hat Department is the evidence surrounding one on every side that Pretty, Stylish Hats can be bought at moderate prices. In this department we are showing great numbers of Hats, in all the new shapes, both large and small, that have the stylish effect of much higher priced Hats. They have been produced in all the popular colorings, and are designed to harmonize in design as well as in color with the full tailored suits.

All Pattern Hats Are Reduced.

Newest Early Winter Hats Received Daily

Merritt—Cole. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DANVILLE, Va., October 31.—A quiet but beautiful wedding was celebrated this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. C. Worsham, on Pine Street, when her niece, Miss Mary

Josephine Cole, daughter of Mrs. Anna B. Cole, became the bride of Mr. William Daniel Merritt, a prominent attorney of Roxboro, N. C. The parlor was decorated in autumn leaves and flowers. The bride was dressed in a brown going-away gown, with hat and gloves to match, and was accompanied by her sister, the maid of honor, Miss Julia Cole, who was attired in blue messaline trimmed with lace. Dr. John Merritt, of Wooddale, N. C., and brother to the groom, was best man.

Rev. George T. Watkins, of Goldsboro, N. C., a brother-in-law of the groom, officiated at the ceremony, which was witnessed by only a few of the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Peartree. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Merritt left on a southbound train for Roxboro, where they will reside.
